

Richard Duffy, Weatherization Program Rehab Specialist, has worked with the Weatherization Program since 1988. He has received training or certifications in a wide variety of weatherization-related areas: blower door techniques, carbon monoxide detection; heating unit inspection, maintenance and repair; gas appliance venting and leak detection; lead paint inspection; mold detection; and CPR and first aid training.