

Rebecca Warren is a Residential Energy Conservation Technician with the Weatherization Program. She has been with local government since 1990. Since 1994, Rebecca has worked as a Rehab Specialist, and has received training in a wide variety of areas: mold detection, lead paint hazards, blower door training, heating system evacuations and repairs, and building diagnostics. Rebecca has also received training in various codes including natural gas, electrical, and solid fuels.