Ice Storm Debris Pickup

Debris from the January Ice Storm is currently being picked up by Metro Public Works. At this time, areas in Audubon, Belmar, Camp Taylor, Poplar Level, Audubon Park, and West Buechel are being cleared by Metro Public Works crews.

Please make sure that any tree branches or other debris are in front of your home or business at the street side, as public works can only visit your home once.

To check the current status of Metro Public Works crews and see where they will be coming to next, please visit www.louisvilleky.gov/publicworks
