Upcoming Events:

Wishing you a very Happy New Year!

Need a Job?

Applications to work on the 2010 Census are being taken now. The hiring will begin in January and the actual work will begin in February or at the beginning of March. These jobs will start out paying $10-15. If you are interested call 695-6395 or email MicheleMcGaha at michelemcgaha@insightbb.com.

Attention Neighborhood Leaders

Sigh-A-Rama Downtown's "Signs of Support" program is taking applications until January 30, 2009 for discounts or free signs for non-profit groups. The program is open to Louisville-area nonprofit and charitable organizations to support their missions through replacement or creation of signs. To get more information or to request an application call Emily Renda at 583-4099 or email her at Emily@franchisemartlouisville.com

Yoga Class

The Fairdale Community School is sponsoring Yoga Classes at Fairdale High School beginning Tuesday, January 6 from 5:30 to 6:45. The classes are free but please call 485-8100 to reserve your spot. Also you will need to bring a yoga mat or large towel.

South West Dream Team

The South West Dream Team is looking for pictures and information for their History book about Southwest Jefferson County. If you are interested in helping please email Robert Price at Robert.price@expresspros.com.

Beware of Pickpockets

There have been reports of a ring of pick pockets around Louisville. Places like Kroger, Lowes, the malls and the race track are just a few of the places this has occurred. Make sure you keep your money in your front pocket and keep your purses closed and carry them in front of you. Be careful and have a safe holiday season.
