

FAMILY INTERVENTION SERVICES

Parents: Does any of this sound familiar?

- Your child is getting in trouble at school
- It's past your child's curfew and they're still not home
- Mouthy backtalk
- Your child isn't performing to their potential at school
- You have no idea where your child is
- Your child always seems angry
- Homework is a nightly struggle
- Getting chores done is impossible
- Attitude, Attitude, Attitude
- Nothing seems to work regarding discipline
- Lack of communication between home and school
- Your child refuses to go to school
- You are frustrated and feel all alone
- Your child is hanging with the wrong crowd
- You're concerned about the use of drugs and/or alcohol

-
- A stylized purple silhouette of a family consisting of two adults and two children, positioned behind the text. The background features a blue gradient on the left and a blue and purple pixelated pattern on the right.
- The Family Assessment and Support Program provides free case management services for families who are experiencing issues such as, a child exhibiting beyond control behaviors at home or school, truancy, running away, or other risk factors that are impacting the functions of the family. This also includes parent/child communication issues.
 - Through case management services, families will be assisted in developing strategies to improve their function while maximizing each family member's potential and opportunities.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Family Resides in Jefferson County
- Family is willing to participate in case management on a voluntary basis.
- There is clearly an identified adult guardian.
- Youth is exhibiting behavioral and/or adjustment problems.
- Parents are seeking new strategies for effective parenting.
- Family or youth not actively involved in Juvenile or Family Court.

To request services via telephone you may call:

- 574-6887