

Barbara Motley is Supervisor of the Lead Safe Louisville program. Barbara has been with local government since 1990. She has a degree from the University of Louisville in Occupational Education with a Health Specialty. She is a state-certified lead paint worker, and has received training in lead safe work practices.