

Welcome to Gilda University-a series of ongoing lectures at your Gilda's Club. The community is invited to these free lectures. 24 hour advanced registration is required so we may better prepare for your visit. You can register for these free programs by calling your clubhouse at 502-583-0075.

Tuesday September 1, 12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

Lunch & Learn with OAK (Ovarian Awareness of Kentucky) Until there's a test, awareness is best. Know the risk factors and learn about screening programs. Lunch provided with reservation.

Wednesday, September 9, 6:00-8:30 p.m.

Couples Dinner & Guided Discussion

For survivors of gynecologic cancers and their significant others. Join us for a special dinner followed by a guided discussion of intimacy and sexuality facilitated by Dr. Laverne Terry Cox and Ed Fossil.

Saturday, September 12, 9:00- 4:00 p.m.

Gynecological Cancer Survivors Course

This webinar is for survivors, family and friends. Information regarding recent research and treatment, biology and genetics, clinical trials, sleep issues, symptom management and care for the caregiver will all be addressed. Space is limited so RSVP early.

Wednesday, September 16, 6:00- 8:00 p.m.

Clinical Trials for Gynecologic Cancers - Dr. David Doering Dr. David Doering, specialist in Gynecology and Oncology will share information about accessing clinical trials specific to GYN cancers. Dinner at 6:00 pm.

Sunday, September 20, 2:00- 5:00 p.m.

Mother - Daughter Tea

Bring your mother or daughter and join Andrea Lewis, MS who will speak about the genetic implications of a gynecologic cancer diagnosis. Stay for a makeup session with a cosmetics expert! Bring your preferred makeup. Leave with a new look and maybe a door prize!

Wednesday, September 23, 6:30- 8:45 p.m.

Movie and Guided Discussion

Women diagnosed with ovarian cancer share their personal stories to demonstrate the challenges they face and the hopes and dreams they have for the future. Guided discussion to follow. Popcorn and light refreshment served.

Wednesday, September 30, 6:00- 8:00 p.m.

BRCA 1 and 2: A Mini Conference

Norton Healthcare and Louisville FORCE present a special lecture and medical panel presentation. After the presentation, there will be a Passing of the Torch ceremony recognizing the connection between ovarian and breast cancer as we transition from September to October. Dinner will be served.